My Dear friend

Your fav^r from Chesterfield (recd only this morning) gave me very great pleasure. The present of Books made by the Vicar of Chesterfield is certainly a most liberal donation and says every thing in favour of that worthy gentleman. I have already written two letters to you which I directed to you, at the Post Office Leeds and they will give you a history of what has taken place here, ~~except~~ except what I have done to day.
I called on three gent^l only they each gave me £5. but I am sorry to say Mr. Hottel has not got any thing nor Piccup either. I hope they will be more active. I have not seen any of the other gentlemen who undertook to collect Subscriptions. Some money can be collected here, if earnestly solicited, but this must be done. People do not Volunteer their donations. The Warden's Subscription Note will procure me many Subscriptions & I think things look favourably here.

Mr. Hapworth thinks some good may be done at Wakefield and he says he can introduce you there. Perhaps you may be advised to go there by some friend at last.
If you should want Mr. Hapworth's introduction I will send it to you. And as I mentioned in my former letter, I now think Halifax & Bradford will be near the visiting. I wish to know when you intend to be at Andover that I may accompany my friend Jos^t Hargis Esq^r.
I have no time to write further but remain

Dear Sir most faithfully yours

We are all well at Hall.

J. Higgins
